

Adjectives in -ed and -ing 2

A. Choose the right adjective to complete the sentences below:

1. I feel very _____ because I have worked hard all day. (tired / tiring)
2. She is not _____ with her job, so she wants to quit. (satisfied / satisfying)
3. His speech was really _____, nobody like it. (bored / boring)
4. The class on the subject of empires was so _____ (interesting / interested)
5. His comments and behaviour are _____ (insulted / insulting)
6. Tom won't go see a doctor, and his wife is _____ about him. (worried / worrying)
7. Sarah looked _____ in that beautiful dress! (amazed / amazing)
8. When his secret was revealed, he felt really _____ (embarrassed / embarrassing)

B. Choose a word and add a suffix to it to complete the sentences:

surprise
amuse

please annoy

excite delight

frustrate confuse

1. He seemed _____ to find the big living room empty.
2. David's mother was so _____ with his excellent test scores.
3. That trip was the most _____ adventure of their lives.
4. A long flight delay can be so _____ for the passengers.
5. The kids were _____ by the jester's tricks and jokes.
6. I find his rude attitude really _____
7. She was _____ to meet her best friend again.
8. The traffic signs are really _____ to me.

